SHOT PORTO RICAN

Wailuku, Maui, Jan. 13.—On last Friday night Police Officer William Feuerpell was making his rounds as usual when he heard a great deal of noise in one of the Porto Rican houses. About ten men were in the house and were beating a coal oil tin as a drum and otherwise making so much disturbance that sleep was impossible.

The officer ordered them in a quiet way to cease their noise and allow those who wished to sleep to do so. All present agreed to this when the officer left the house and by an invitation of one of the men went to another house, the one occupied by the Porto Rican who invited the officer to accompany him.

A few moments later the rest of the Porto Ricans came to this same house and carried on as before, to which the officer made no objection, but the moment he stepped out of the door one of the men, Raymond Reylo, threw a hammer at the officer, striking him just above the left eye, making an ugly gash and for a moment stunning the officer.

The officer later on went up to Reylo and placed him under arrest, but instead of going with the officer he hid behind another Porto Rican.

The officer, fearing another assault, drew his revolver and ordered the Porto Rican to put up his hands and at the same time stated that if he tried to assault him again he would shoot.

At this the Porto Rican again attempted to assault the officer, striking him with his hand, grazing his chin and cutting his coat on the shoulder.

The Porto Rican then fell and all was for a time quiet.

Later Reylo and a number of his friends went in search of the wounded officer and threatened to kill him, his wife and children and burn his house.

Joe Silva, one of the lunas, and Manuel Mura, an engineer, succeeded in keeping them quiet until Head Luna McClaund and Paul Bell arrived, when the men were soon quieted.

The following morning Raymond Reylo was arrested and a hearing was held before District Magistrate McKay, who committed him to jail to appear before the Grand Jury.

Reylo is a notorious character and has served two terms in jail in Wailuku.

It is supposed his act was due to an old grudge he has against the officer. News.

MUSIC CURES "GRAFT".

Milwaukee, Dec. 28.—Professor William L. Tomlins of Chicago says that music will cure graft. In an address to the Wisconsin Teachers' Association today Professor Tomlins said:

"Give the boys and girls of this country the inner conception of the higher life, as it can be given unconsciously through music, properly taught, and you will have the solution of the graft problem and all other material evils."

"So thoroughly have I been convinced of this fact that for the last nine years I have given my entire attention to this work. When I first began work with children I saw what could be done with them; but I did not realize the philosophy of it until several years later. My experience has taught the regenerating effect of music."

Professor Tomlins then related his experience in New York some years ago with classes composed not only of the lower elements, but of some of the most vicious boys of the Bowery district. Brutality was their fun, he said, because they knew no better. But with their musical training came a new spirit, until when one day a boy clinched his fist to strike his mate, he caught the hand and unclenched the fingers with the remark:

"Aw, fergit it."

HILO EASTERN STAR.

Hilo, Jan. 11.—The officers of the Hawaii Chapter No. 1, Order of the Eastern Star, for the ensuing year, were regularly installed at the Chapter rooms last Saturday evening. Owing to the size of the room, the invitations were limited to one for each member residing in Hilo and vicinity, so that only about forty witnessed the interesting work. Mrs. E. N. Holmes, as worthy installing officer, read the solemn ceremony with great impressiveness. Miss Harriet G. Hitchcock performed the arduous and active duties of the Marshal. A pleasant social hour and a light collation followed the installation. The new staff of officers is as follows: Worthy Matron, Mrs. Wm. McKay, Jr.; Worthy Patron, Mr. E. N. Holmes; Associate Matron, Miss Alice Weight; Conductress, Mrs. W. H. Campbell; Associate Conductress, Mrs. D. A. Loebenstein; Chaplain, Mrs. H. L. Shaw; Marshal, Mrs. E. N. Holmes; Secretary, Mrs. J. U. Smith; Treasurer, Mr. H. L. Shaw; Adah, Miss Mabelle Wise; Ruth, Mrs. G. H. Vickers; Esther, Miss Lilian Hapal; Martha, Mrs. K. F. Mackie; Electa, Mrs. J. F. Green; Warder, Mrs. W. S. Wise; Sentinel, Mr. Wm. McKay, Jr.

KNIGHTS OF PYTHIAS OFFICERS.

Lahaina, Jan. 13.—The members of Aloha Lodge, Knights of Pythias, held their annual election in their castle hall last Saturday night.

The officers elected for the year were the following: Hugh M. Cooke, Chancellor; W. S. Montague, Vice-Chancellor; Rev. Wm. Ault, Prelate; E. C. Campbell, Keeper of Records and Seal; Dan T. Carey, Master of Exchequer; L. M. Baldwin, Master of Finance; Carl Waldeyer, Master at Arms; W. A. McKay, H. Streubach, C. D. Lufkin, Trustees; T. Buriem, Inner Guard; Joe Freitas, Outer Guard; Dr. W. F. CoConkey, Dr. J. H. Raymond, Physicians.

All of the officers elected will be installed on the 27th instant.

A banquet is to be given and all members of the lodge and all visiting brothers are expected to attend.

The Grand Duchess Marie of Russia is only 15, extremely pretty and sweet looking. She is generally designated as the "Cinderella" of Russian princesses.

IS IT GENERAL PERSHING?

Washington, Dec. 26.—The conviction is expressed among officers in the War Department that President Roosevelt intends to promote Captain John J. Pershing of the Fifteenth Cavalry, whose home is in Chicago, to a brigadier generalship. This would jump him over the heads of several hundred officers and give an example of advancement by "selection" which has no parallel in army annals, save in the cases of Generals Leonard Wood and Albert L. Mills, whose promotions caused a fire of criticism.

Captain Pershing is a good officer and his record of achievement in the Philippine Islands attracted the attention of the President. It was rumored a year ago that a promotion was awaiting the Chicago man, but the fact that the Senate held up for so long a time the nominations of Wood and Mills caused the President to hesitate to send in the name of the cavalry captain, whose advancement would mean the ignoring of all veterans and hard fighters of three ranks intervening between the grade of captain and that of brigadier general.

In a recent dispatch attention was called to the fact that the Senate Committee on Military Affairs had three new members, each of whom could be counted upon to sanction any name the President might present for promotion. If Captain Pershing's name be sent to the Senate, the newly constituted committee undoubtedly would approve it, once and the fact that Senator Warren, the new chairman of the committee, is the father-in-law of Captain Pershing probably would not operate against the Chicagoan.

LAHAINA'S NEW BANK

Lahaina, Jan. 13.—The Lahaina National Bank has been organized and incorporating papers have been forwarded to Washington by C. D. Lufkin the promoter. The bank has been capitalized at twenty-five thousand dollars, all of which has been subscribed and fifty per cent of which has been paid. The Lahaina National Bank will be under the same management as the First National Bank of Wailuku and the stockholders will be, as far as possible, identical. The temporary directors are C. M. Cooke, president; C. D. Lufkin, vice president; F. C. Albertson, cashier; P. C. Jones and C. H. Cooke, directors.

Mr. Lufkin hopes to receive authority from the Comptroller of the Currency to begin business about January 15th and anticipates that the bank will be open for business soon after February first next. The First National Bank of Wailuku has been in business just four years and its success is clearly set forth in its fourth annual statement which has recently been sent out.

Lahaina is to be congratulated on her acquisition of a National Bank and we predict success for the bank and prosperity to the sister city. Wailuku fully realizes the convenience of a conservative banking institution and wonders how she could have conducted her business so long without one. Maui News.

HALEAKALA'S DANCE.

(Special to The Bulletin)
Wailuku, Maui, Jan. 12.—The dance given by Haleakala Lodge at the Armory on last Wednesday evening was a great success, there being present over 150 invited guests, all parts of Maui being represented.

Promptly at 8 p. m. the grand march was led by S. Keilinoi and Mrs. Keilinoi, who were followed by many gay couples in evening dress. The music for the occasion was very fine and the dance was kept in full swing until the small hour in the morning. During the evening refreshments were served to all present, and every one was fixed in the general opinion that the affair had been a big success.

MARRIED.

SHAW-SPENCER.—In this city at the residence of Hon. J. A. Cummins, January 14, 1906, Mr. John E. Shaw and Miss Victoria Spencer by Elder Abraham Fernandez of the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter Day Saints.

The late Czar Alexander III of Russia was once considerably embarrassed by a circus of performing fleas, sent him by Prince Henry of Reuss as a birthday present.

A cough is a danger signal. You should heed its warning promptly. Begin at once, and take regular doses of

Ayer's Cherry Pectoral

All serious lung troubles begin with a common cold. A cold in the throat easily passes to the bronchial tubes, and you have bronchitis, leading possibly to pneumonia or consumption. Stop your cold before it goes down into the chest. When you bring a bottle of Ayer's Cherry Pectoral into the house you bring with it relief, good cheer, hope, and sunshine. It is a standard and unrivaled remedy for colds and coughs.

There are many substitutes and imitations. Beware of them and of so-called "Genuine Cherry Pectoral." Be sure you get AYER'S Cherry Pectoral. Put up in large and small bottles.
